Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course the student will:

1. To identify and recognize the differences between prokaryotes and eukaryotes.
2. Demonstrate theory and practice of the methods of microbial transfer, parasitism, and infection.
3. Demonstrate theory and practice of body defense mechanisms against microbial infection.
4. Demonstrate theory and practice of the prevention and control of infections caused by microorganisms.

Student Contributions, Responsibilities and Class Policies:

Students will be expected to comply with the policies outlined in the Midland College Student Handbook. Instructor policies concerning attendance and academic behavior are consistent with the policies in the student handbook. Regular attendance is recommended to do well in this lecture. Attendance is mandatory for laboratory. Any student that misses 50% of the labs in a given unit of study may not be allowed to take the exam for that unit.

Attendance Policy:

It is the responsibility of the students to know the policies and procedures associated with absences. These policies are set by instructors. Excused absences may include, but are not limited to, illness, severe weather, and death in the family. Instructors will determine whether or not an absence is excused. Please visit the Midland College Catalog

Withdrawal Policy:

Students who have enrolled in a Texas public institution of higher education as a first-time freshman in fall 2007 or later are permitted to drop no more than six courses during the entire undergraduate career. This limit includes all transfer work taken at a Texas institution of higher education and to second baccalaureate degrees. This statute was enacted by the State of Texas in spring 2007 (Texas Education Code 51.907). Any course that a student drops after Census Day is counted toward the six-course limit if "(1) the student was able to drop the course without receiving a grade or incurring an academic penalty; (2) the student's transcript indicates or will indicate that the student was enrolled in the course; and (3) the student is not dropping the course in order to withdraw from the institution." Please visit the Midland College Catalog

Scholastic Dishonesty:

Midland College does not tolerate scholastic dishonesty or academic misconduct in any form. Please read the MC Student Handbook on this subject. Please visit the Midland College Catalog

Course Schedule:

This class meets for 3 lecture hours per week and 4 laboratory hours per week. For a tentative schedule of the class meetings and laboratory meetings please refer to the schedule distributed to each student on the first class meeting (See Instructor Handout).
