Course Goals/Objectives

At the end of the semester, students will be able to:

1. Explain the origin and development of constitutional democracy in the United States.
2. Explain the origin and development of the Texas constitution.
3. Analyze the similarities and differences between the current U.S. and Texas constitutions.

Student Responsibilities and Class Procedures

- Involvement with the material is essential – students must read, take notes and ask questions.
- Students must attend class regularly and/or check Canvas regularly.
- Students must come to class prepared and be on time and/or prepare for on-line assignments in a timely manner.
- Students are expected to be able to read, write and understand standard English: the course is based on extensive amounts of material given in lecture and/or notes, audio visual aids, and assigned readings.
- A schedule of class events will be given to each student at the beginning of the semester. Additionally, information will be posted on Canvas. It is the student's responsibility to know exam dates and when assignments are due.
- It is also the responsibility of the student to know their progress in the course.
- If a student is absent when exams are given or assignments are given or due, the student is still responsible for having the work done on time or making up the exam, at the discretion of the instructor.
- If the student takes the initiative the instructor will advise them on their progress in the course.
- Instructors cannot drop students with a "W", this must be accomplished officially by the student.
- Students with a disability are encouraged to contact the Office of Student Services. It is the student's responsibility to register with the Office of Student Services when requesting accommodation.

- Students are expected to conduct themselves professionally and courteously in the classroom and/or the on-line environment.
- Students are expected to have academic integrity and to adhere to the guidelines in the Midland College Student Handbook.

Evaluation of Students

Final grades will be determined according to the following criteria:

- Each test will consist of questions based on assigned reading material and lectures.
- Instructors use a variety of testing methods ranging from essay exams, to short answer exams to multiple choice exams, to a combination of essay/short answer/multiple choice exams to quizzes.
- All classes include some evaluation through writing (literacy).
- The grading system used in class is discussed thoroughly the first week of class
- A grade of "A" (90-100) is universally considered excellent work or mastery of the subject; "B" (80-89) is above average work; "C" (70-79) is average; "D" (60-69) is below average; and "F" (59 and below) is a failure to perform adequately on an assigned task. However, for on-line classes, this grading scale may be altered, at the instructor's discretion, to reflect the difference in assignments and expectations.
- Grades are determined by the method selected by the instructor.
- Make up exam policy is at the discretion of the instructor, except when the student is absent on official College business or activity. At the Midland campus there is a testing center in the Student Center that may be used.
- The student is responsible for knowing their individual instructor's make-up policy – as indicated in the syllabus.
- Occasionally, at the discretion of the instructor, there are opportunities to earn extra credit.

Class Schedule

Each instructor completes a class schedule, which appears on the syllabus. Topics covered (in varying order) include:

- U.S. Constitution
- Texas Constitution

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Statement

Midland College provides services for students with disabilities through Student Services. In order to receive accommodations, students must visit Midland College Accommodation Services and complete the Application for Accommodation Services located under the Apply for Accommodations tab. Services or accommodations are not automatic, each student must apply and be approved to receive them. All documentation submitted will be reviewed and a "Notice of Accommodations" letter will be sent to instructors outlining any reasonable accommodations.
