

Midland College
Syllabus
IRWD 0480
Integrated Writing and Reading I (3-1)
Fall 2021

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed for students who need preparatory work in reading and writing. The course teaches students to integrate critical reading and writing skills, with the goal of getting students ready to succeed in the corequisite course, ENGL 1301. Students learn to utilize all reading skills to further improve comprehension, reading rate, and fluency. Students learn to apply insights gained from reading a variety of texts in order to use effective writing strategies such as editing strategies, generating ideas from texts, and recognizing and applying the conventions of Standard English. Students will integrate critical reading and academic writing skills in order to comprehend and interact with college-level texts and to produce college-level writing. Course includes 16 lab hours directed by the instructor. This course is not for college credit. Corequisites: ENGL 1301.

Note: Like IRWD 0381, IRWD 0480 will be an eight-week corequisite with ENGL 1301. IRWD 0381 and IRWD 0480 are similar in their emphasis on improving students' abilities to produce college level writing. The main difference between IRWD 0381 and IRWD 0480 is that IRWD 4080 will have a greater emphasis on reading than IRWD 0381.

COURSE VISION

The vision of Midland College for IRWD 0480 students is far beyond getting students just to pass a test that shows sufficient reading and writing skill to enter ENGL 1301 and other credit classes. Rather, Midland College envisions much greater success: that students pass IRWD 0480 and progress to ENGL 1301 with better than average ability to read and write. Ultimately, we desire that all students go forward from this class to college success, whether that means a degree, a certificate, or successful transfer to a four-year college.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students successfully completing this course will be able to:

1. Locate explicit textual information, draw complex inferences, and describe, analyze, and evaluate the information within and across multiple texts of varying lengths.
2. Comprehend and use vocabulary effectively in oral communication, reading, and writing.

3. Identify and analyze the audience, purpose, and message across a variety of texts.
4. Describe and apply insights gained from reading and writing a variety of texts.
5. Compose a variety of texts that demonstrate reading comprehension, clear focus, logical development of ideas, and use of appropriate language that advance the writer's purpose.
6. Determine and use effective approaches and rhetorical strategies for given reading and writing situations.
7. Generate ideas and gather information relevant to the topic and purpose, incorporating the ideas and words of other writers in student writing using established strategies.
8. Evaluate relevance and quality of ideas and information in recognizing, formulating, and developing a claim.
9. Develop and use effective reading and revision strategies to strengthen the writer's ability to compose college-level writing assignments.
10. Recognize and apply the conventions of Standard English in reading and writing.

FREE ACCESS TO MICROSOFT 365

All Midland College students have a free Microsoft Office 365 account via the Midland College website: Microsoft 365 Offer. Students should go to that website for instructions for accessing their account to create Word, Excel, and other Microsoft documents.

COURSE POLICIES

Instructors can revise these course policies according to their specific class's needs:

1. Respect to others at all times and responsibility are expected.
2. No food or drink allowed in the classroom or lab. Cell phones are allowed to be in the classroom but should not be used in a distracting manner. Pagers, music devices (iPods/mp3s), electronic games or earbuds are allowed. No picture, voice, or video recording is allowed without the permission of the instructor. NO vulgar language or disrespectful behavior will be tolerated. The student may be removed for using these devices and/or being disrespectful, which can result in losing credit for the course.

3. Attendance Policy: Attendance is mandatory in this class and lab. The student will be responsible for regular, prompt attendance in the scheduled Integrated Reading/Writing course, and his/her grade will reflect any missed classes. Attendance, as well as successful completion of lab assignments is a portion of the class grade.
4. Be on time and be prepared. Often the first ten minutes of class are the most important. Always bring textbook and necessary materials to class.
5. Late work: Late Work is not accepted, unless prior arrangements have been made by the student and the instructor. If late work is accepted, papers will drop a letter grade per class meeting.
6. If the student misses a class, he/she is responsible for contacting the instructor as soon as possible concerning the nature of the absence as well as to find out what had been missed in class and what is due for the next class.
7. Students are expected to check Canvas daily for assignments and instructions.
8. Withdrawal Policy: Students are responsible for their dropping of this class to avoid an F on their transcripts; the instructor will not drop a student.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Plagiarism is defined as the appropriation, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another's work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one's own written work offered for credit. A student commits plagiarism if he/she:

1. fails to acknowledge the sources of any information in a paper which is not either common knowledge or personal knowledge. A student can acknowledge a source through in-text citations, attribution lines, footnotes, or other forms of documentation approved by the instructor. (Common knowledge is the basic information within a field or discipline, as well as most historical dates and facts, and many ordinary observations.)

2. fails to acknowledge direct quotation either by using quotation marks or (for longer passages) indentation. Without the quotation marks or indentation, passages copied directly from a source might be considered plagiarized even if it is followed by an in-text citation or a footnote. The citation or footnote acknowledges that there is a source, but it does not indicate that the writer has borrowed someone else's exact words. If a writer uses the language of a source, word-for word, he/she must use quotation marks or block indentation.

3. merely paraphrases the original words of the source. Some students think they can avoid a charge of plagiarism by changing a few words in each sentence they copy or by rearranging the shape of phrases or the order of sentences in a paragraph. This is not true. When taking notes students must be careful to put ideas in their own words or to use direct quotations when relying on phrases directly borrowed from a source.

4. borrows the ideas, examples, or structure of the source without acknowledging it. A student can be guilty of plagiarism if he/she systematically borrows the ideas and organization of a source even if the language of the piece is on a major news event by using exactly the same ideas in the same order as they appear in an article in any popular news magazine.

5. takes, buys, or receives work created by someone else and presents it as the student's own.

6. uses one assignment/paper for two different courses, or re-uses a paper previously submitted for credit, without the prior approval of the instructor or instructors.

Penalties

If a student has any questions or doubts about the way he/she is employing sources or assistance in any given assignment, he/she is advised to consult the instructor before handing in the assignment. The penalties for any type of scholastic dishonesty described in this statement can be severe and can adversely affect the student's permanent academic record. The instructor has the primary responsibility for recommending the penalty in cases of academic dishonesty after consultation with the Division Dean and the student. Students may seek review of the decision or redress of a grievance related to their participation in college programs or activities. The instructor does have the right to enforce any one of the following penalties for scholastic dishonesty at his/her discretion and in response to each particular case:

1. Failure of the assignment;
2. Failure of the course;
3. Recommendation for disciplinary action, including institutional suspension or dismissal.

EVALUATION OF STUDENTS

CLASS ASSIGNMENTS

- Reading assignments/Additional activities/Post-test (30%)
- Attendance/ Participation (15%)
- Lab Evaluations (25%)
- Essays, Writings, and Critical Writing Portfolio (30%)

GRADING SCALE:

A = 90 – 100

LAB ASSIGNMENTS

IRWD 0480 is a four-hour class, requiring 8 hours per week. Six hours are scheduled already, which leaves two hours per week as strictly online. Lab Hours will be recorded in three different ways:

1. in class by faculty
2. in person in the Language Hub by Sara Peterson
3. in the Chat feature of the IRWD Lab Sessions Canvas site by Sara Peterson

Lab hours for the week will end at 11:59 p.m. on Thursdays. Please make the necessary accommodations with your schedule to ensure your assignments are submitted in a timely manner in order to receive full credit for lab work.

LANGUAGE HUB

The Language Hub is available for students having questions or needing additional help with writing practices or grammar. The attendance and assignments for the lab evaluations are required to be completed virtually (see the instructions in Canvas). The lab is open for a limited number of students from 12:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday—Thursday and 8:00 a.m. to noon on Friday, as well as virtual tutoring by appointment.

INSTRUCTOR COMMUNICATION AND RESPONSE TIME

Students are encouraged to contact the instructor at any time; however, making an appointment will guarantee the instructor's availability at a specific time. Students may communicate with me by scheduling a virtual conference through Canvas or Teams, calling my office phone, or sending a Canvas/campus e-mail. Expect a response within 24 hours.

PROHIBITION OF AUDIO/VIDEO RECORDING OF INSTRUCTOR AND CLASS ACTIVITIES

Students may not make audio or visual recordings of any face-to-face or electronic class activities, including, for example, discussions, conferences, and lectures. The only exception is for students with a disability documented according to Midland College ADA Statement and Midland College-ordered accommodations specifically authorizing such recording.

DROP / WITHDRAWAL

The student is responsible for initiating a drop or withdrawal, not the instructor.

Withdrawal from course: The instructor is not able to withdraw a student from the course after the census date. A student wishing to withdraw must fill out the withdrawal form in MyMCPortal.
