

Name:

Manuel S. Aldana

Names of all higher education institutions attended, with degrees earned:

PhD,MA, University of Minnesota
BA, University of the Philippines

All previous teaching positions, including the names of the institutions, the position, and beginning and ending dates of employment:

Midland College. Government, Adjunct, 2007-
Cedar Valley College, DCCCD, Government,Adjunct, 1977-2006.
Bishop College, Dallas, 1974-1987. Professor, Political Science; Chair, 1974-1979; Curriculum Specialist, Social Science, 1979-1982;Assistant to the Dean of Academic Affairs, 1979-1981.
Westmar College, Iowa, 1966-1968, 1970-1974;Program Chair, Political Science
Ateneo University, Philippines, 1968-1970.Assistant Professor, Political Science,Graduate School, Undergraduate College of Liberal Arts; Director, Research in Philippine Politics; Director, Seminar on Modernization and Nationalism;Director, Seminar on the Philippine Constitution.

Significant professional publications related to the teaching position, with a full citation for each:

'Three Strikes Revisited,' Texas Probation, 19:(2),2004,pp. 19-20.
'Global and Domestic Dimensions of Crime and Crime Control,' Texas Probation, 17(1), 2002, pp. 13-14.
'Developing Federal Crime Policy,' Texas Probation,16(1), 2001, pp. 17-19.
With Lucy Patterson and William A.P. Thompson, 'The Recruitment of a Dallas City Manager,' Texas Journal of Political Studies, 4(2), 1982, pp. 59-76.
'The East India Company and the British Crown,'Silliman Journal, 16(2), 1969, pp. 182-199.
'United States-Philippine Relations, 1946-1956,'
Philippine Studies, 1970.
The International Responsibility of States for Injuries to Aliens in Recent International Law. University of Minnesota, 1966.