Midland College Instructor Vitae: Tomas Hernandez

Education

- Masters of Science 1995, Biology, Sul Ross State University, Alpine, TX.
- Bachelor of Science 1991, Biology, Sul Ross State University, Alpine, TX.

Teaching Experience

- 1995-Present, Instructor of Biology, Midland College, Midland, TX.
- Fall 2012, Adjunct Instructor, Herpetology lab (Biol 4403), SRSU.
- Spring 2011, Adjunct Instructor, Ornithology lab (Biol 4404), SRSU.
- Fall 2010, Adjunct Instructor, Herpetology lab (Biol 4403), SRSU.
- Spring 2010, Adjunct Instructor, Mammalogy lab (Biol 4409), SRSU.
- Spring 2007, Adjunct Instructor, 'Plant Collecting, Identification, and Herbarium Techniques.' Continuing Education course, Midland College.
- Spring 2005, Adjunct Instructor, Herpetology lab (Biol 4403), SRSU.
- Fall 2004, Adjunct Instructor, Morphology of Vascular Plants lab (Biol 4408), SRSU.
- 1992-1994, Adjunct Instructor, Graduate Teaching Assistant, Microbiology and Zoology labs, SRSU.
- 1991-1992, Adjunct Instructor, Undergraduate Teaching Assistant, Microbiology labs, SRSU.

Professional Publications

- 'Flavonoid Compound Chemistry and Its Systematic Implications in the Genus Quercus of Trans-Pecos, Texas.' Masters Thesis: Sul Ross State University, 1995.