

Midland College Faculty Vitae

Name:

Dan W. Ledbetter

Names of all higher education institutions attended, with degrees earned:

East Texas State University, MS of Vocational Education

North Texas State University, BS of Industrial Arts

All previous teaching positions, including the names of the institutions, the position, and beginning and ending dates of employment:

More than 20 years teaching high school and college welding. Rig welding and rig mechanic, oil field welding including cutting pipe and welding on heads, shop fabrication and welding foreman for large steel fabricator.

Significant professional publications related to the teaching position, with a full citation for each: