Midland College Instructor Vitae: Shawna Lopez

Education

- MS - Interdisciplinary Studies, West Texas A&M University
- B.A.A.S with core in Biology, West Texas A&M University

Teaching Experience

- Midland College, Associate Professor – Biology, 2019-Present
  - Prepare lectures and instruct students. Duties include: Prepare lesson plans and create exams; Classroom and laboratory instruction; Evaluation of student mastery of course outcomes; WebCT, Angel Learning, Blackboard, and Canvas experience.
- Amarillo College, Program Director, 2004-2019
  - Prepare lectures and instruct students. Duties include: Prepare lesson plans and create tests; Coordinate training sites by means of locating experiential sites; Student advising and recruitment; Classroom and laboratory instruction including syllabi development; Evaluation of student mastery of course outcomes; Manage department budget and oversee part-time employees; Maintain program accreditation and ensure program follows SACS/COC and Coordinating Board rules.
- Amarillo College, Adjunct Instructor - Anatomy & Physiology, Mortuary Science, Medical Data, 2010-Present
  - Prepare lectures and instruct students. Duties include: Prepare lesson plans and create exams; Student advising and recruitment; Classroom and laboratory instruction; Evaluation of student mastery of course outcomes; WebCT, Angel Learning, and Blackboard experience.