

Midland College Faculty Vitae

Name:

LaTisha Rehn

Names of all higher education institutions attended, with degrees earned:

MA, University of Texas at Arlington, English, December 2016

Graduated with Distinction

Thesis: "Songs of Salvation: Shakespeare's Defense of Performing Artists through Secular Ballads in Three Plays"

Advisor: Dr. Amy Tigner

BA, University of Texas at Arlington, English, December 2008

Graduated Summa Cum Laude

Minored in Psychology

AA, Tarrant County College, Liberal Arts, May 2008

All previous teaching positions, including the names of the institutions, the position, and beginning and ending dates of employment:

Midland College, Adjunct Instructor, English, August 2017 - Present

Midland Lee High School Teacher, Yearbook Advisor, English, August 2013 - Present

Courses Taught:

AP Language and Composition (Current)

Dual Credit ENGL 1301-1302 (Current)

Creative Writing (Current)

Yearbook/Journalism (Current)

English IV – British Literature

Business Writing

Remedial Writing

Significant professional publications related to the teaching profession, with a full citation for each:

Articles

“The Innocence Network.” College of Liberal Arts Annual Review. University of Texas at Arlington, 2009.

“The Green Wives of Windsor.” The Bard Report. Shakespeare Dallas, 2009.

Conference Papers

July 2009

The Shakespeare Dallas Stage Notes Series Samuell-Grand Amphitheatre, Dallas, Texas

By invitation, I presented my research through a conference paper: Let It Thunder to the Tune of Greensleeves! Shakespeare’s Use of Popular Music in The Merry Wives of Windsor.

March 2009 and March 2011

A.C.E.S. Symposium (Annual Celebration of Excellence by Students) Palo Pinto Ballroom, Arlington, Texas

From a pool of graduate students, I was chosen to deliver my paper: Domesticating the Amazon Queen in A Midsummer Night’s Dream, at this interdisciplinary conference in 2009. I was invited to return to the conference in 2011 to discuss my paper: Religious Resistance through Popular Music in The Merry Wives of Windsor.

Presentations and Invited Lectures

August 2019

Elevate! Midland ISD Professional Development Conference Midland, Texas

1. Presentation: “Escape Rooms as Formative Assessment in the Secondary Classroom”
2. Presentation: “Engaging Secondary Readers: Philosophical Chairs and Variations on the Socratic Seminar”

August 2018

Elevate! Midland ISD Professional Development Conference Midland, Texas

1. Presentation: “Escape Rooms as Formative Assessment in the Secondary Classroom”